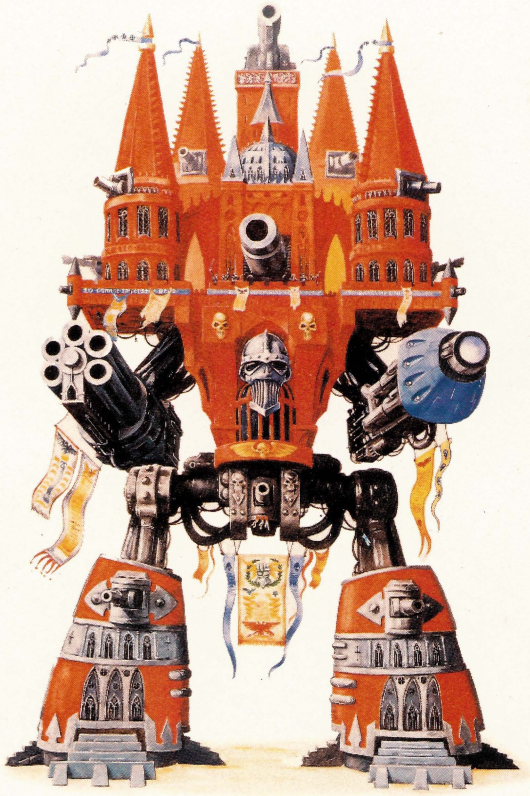
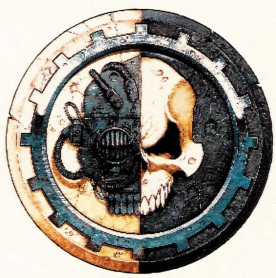
CITADEL® MINIATURES

TITAN LEGIONS



Titan Legions is the game of epic battles set in the 41st Millennium in which you and your opponent control vast armies of Citadel Miniatures on the tabletop.

In the Far Future, vast armies clash across the shattered cities of a hundred ravaged worlds. Humanity struggles for survival amongst the stars against the countless hordes of alien invaders that seek to conquer the Imperium of Man. In this time of peril, only the armies of the Imperium stand between mankind and ultimate destruction: the vast regiments of the Imperial Guard, the elite Chapters of Space Marine warriors and the monstrous Titan fighting machines of the Titan Legions.



THE IMPERIUM

The Imperium of mankind has spread across a million worlds to the far reaches of the galaxy. Despite this achievement, the fate of humanity hangs in the balance. From every side, the Imperium is attacked by hordes of aliens. The Imperial defenders are armed with gigantic war machines, the biggest of which are the Titans built by the Tech-Priests of the Adeptus Mechanicus.

Imperial Knight Ork Bonebreaka

THE ORKS

Orks are warlike aliens who love nothing more than fighting. The Orks are a huge threat to the Imperium,as their ambitious Warlords are always trying to build up massive armies to attack human worlds. The Ork Mek-Boyz build gigantic mechanical fighting machines called Gargants These are technically crude compared to Titans, but their firepower is every bit as formidable.
